Todd,

On behalf of myself and my law firm as parties to the above-referenced defamation suit, I have filed an Anti-SLAPP Motion to Dismiss that we would like to set for hearing at the Court's first available setting. Would you please provide us with dates and times?

Respectfully,

T. Chase Garrett

SUBMISSION SETTINGS- We highly encourage setting hearings by SUBMISSION. Our submission dockets are daily at 1pm. First available date is one week from the date of request.

These must be agreed to by all parties, except in the case of defaults. To place something on the submission docket, please confer with opposing party, agree on a date that you wish it set, notify the Court of that agreed date by email and e-file your Notice of Submission, which MUST contain the full styling of the Motion and the date the Motion was filed. Once the Notice has been accepted via e-file, then you may e-file the Order.

ORAL VIDEO HEARINGS- All Video hearings will be set at 9:00 a.m. on Fridays only. Please confirm availability with the Court before e-filing your Notice.

VERY IMPORTANT- Only one contested motion will be set per 30 minute slot.

The Court does not allow Contested Discovery Motions to be heard by video. Those must be set for an in-person hearing.

These are video hearings. Please read the Rules for Remote Proceedings here-

https://www.collincountytx.gov/district\_courts/Documents/471st%20Rules%20for%20Remote%20Proceedings.pdf

We have the following oral VIDEO hearing dates available-

July- FULL

August- 26

September- 2, 9, 30

October- 7, 14

IN-PERSON HEARINGS-

Please confirm the time availability with the Court before e-filing your Notice. VERY IMPORTANT- Only one contested motion will be set per slot.

We have the following IN-PERSON hearing dates available-

July- FULL

August- 22, 23, 24, 25

September- 6, 7, 8, 28, 29

October- 10, 11, 12, 13, 31

HEARING PROCESS- Please confer with all parties before setting a hearing date with the Court. Once you all have agreed on a date/time, notify the Court by email. Once you receive a confirmation of the actual hearing time, you may e-file the Notice, which MUST contain the full styling of the Motion and the date the Motion was filed. Once the Notice is accepted, then you may e-file the Order for holding, if you wish.

Kind regards,

Todd Hill
